LETTERS TO JULIET

LA PIÙ GRANDE
STORIA D'AMORE
MAI RACCONTATA...
È LA TUA

My dearest Juliet,

I meet my husband Paul here in Johannesburg on the 13th of February 1992.

He fought for freedom and had recently been released from Robben Island (where he spent 14 years as a political prisoner).

I was a young journalist from Northern Sweden. People said it would never last: He was black, I was white. He was 40, I was 22. He had spent too long time in prison. Etc.

A doctor told us it was very unlikely that we would have children as Paul had been

Dear Juliet,

In it real? Is true love real? I would never be able to answer such a question for myself. For my life, the whole of it, is simply a blank canvas upon which the hand of Love has never even fallen upon in consideration. Never have I been wooed, admired, called beautiful. I suppose in a world like today's, one can not be expected to believe in things such as magic and faith and true love, but we cannot live without it.

For someone like me, a girl who lives for the stories of truest compassion and selfless love, this world is a strangely foreign place. I have never had reason to believe that this sort of love even exists anymore. I don't know who else to ask, so I decided to write to you and ask you, Juliet, what does it feel like to love someone that you've never seen before? What is so wonderful or amazing about a kiss; Another small adventure I have never had. Is there something wrong with me, Juliet? Have I anything to hope for?

I am eighteen years old. Single faced, and am often told that I am pretty by family. I sing everything from popular music to operas. I am intelligent enough, I suppose. I have liked many a young man, but forever been to shy to tell any of them. I draw, write, paint, dance, sing, but to no avail. I am not too loud, nor too quiet. I understand things like decency, chivalry, kindness, propriety, hopey and joy. The old world charm is something that I love. Is there something wrong with me, Juliet?

Neither knave, nor knight, nor prince, nor beast will even glance my way in consideration. I have never been kissed, dated, given a flower, or even asked to a dance. Though many a young man is my friend, none that I know who would be in love with me.

Mon cher Juliette,
je t'écris pour que tu puisses faire un vœux que mon amour pour Christian et notre union soient éternelle. Nous avons uni notre amour par le voilement du mariage le 5 mars 2014 et ce fut un des plus beaux jours de ma vie.
Ensemble, nous avons eu une belle petite fille Chantel qui apporte de la joie, de bonheur et qui est en parfait compte. Faites un vœux que notre famille soit remplie d'amour, de bonheur et de santé pour toute notre vie.
Je te demande également ton aide pour faire un vœux que les 2 autres filles de mon mari, Isabelle et Félicia, m'aiment et me respectent comme une deuxième maman. La famille recomposée n'est pas toujours facile et j'ai besoin d'un équilibre dans ma vie pour que ce soit vain.

Merci pour ton aide Juliette.

Re: My letter to Juliet

Dear Juliet,

I find myself so unhappy. I'm married with two children and though I love their father very much, it feels like something is missing or the wrong type of love. That is only part of the problem. I have a friend that I care about a great deal and the type of feelings they are makes it feel as if things were somehow reversed because these feelings for my friend is the way I should feel about my husband. I don't know if my friend feels as I do or how to go about finding out. There are too many ifs in this tale and so many of them scare me. I feel ~~small~~ small.

my letter to Juliet

I find myself as cynical as an old man who has seen and experienced many things. But it turned out to be a mistake. I feel ~~small~~ small.

Dear Juliet,

How long do you wait? How long do you wait for the man you love, until he is ready to welcome me? I never loved someone the way I love future for us together. There is no exact date when he would be ready. So where do I draw the line?

... P. ... 2 months

Cara Giulietta,
vorrei poterti parlare personalmente la mia storia traghettata da paure e false speranze, ma spero che tu possa farmi capire se è più giusto menzicare un amore che non è completo oppure regalare il proprio cuore e anima vivi per davvero.

Tu semmi credendomi...

in his life.

Dear Juliet,

I'm a 26 year old holding on to a ~~small~~ glimmer of hope that one day I'll find a love as strong as yours.

I have terrible luck when it comes to love and romance. Four years ago, my high school sweetheart called off our wedding and left me, no closure or explanation. I would have done anything for him - I had moved far away from my family, military career, and he left me.

Romeo and Juliet

He is Seamus Hegarty. I am Jessica O'Connell-Lynch.
I was photographing in his direction and he had his head out his arts centre's upstairs window, smiling, and laughing, that's how we were seen. Romeo and Juliet has always been my religion. I knew then they lived in us. I went I ran that arts centre with him awhile. He is a photo and filmmaker. He is a genius. We would write each other from across cinemas in the city when he was working the projectionist in the other.
