“La posta mai immaginata”: A cycle of ten Zoom presentations every Monday

Art, conservation, culture, entertainment: the common threads that characterize the “Tavolo dei «postali»” is coming back for the third digital cycle under the title “La posta mai immaginata”. Ten Zoom presentations with free participation. They will take place every Monday at 18:00 (CET) starting from 23 January. Once again, they are proposed by the Historical Museum of Communication (now the Ministry of Enterprise and Made in Italy), the “Aldo Cecchi” Institute of Postal Studies, OdV, the Italian Philatelic Press Union and the “Vaccari news” digital newspaper.

In order to participate, all you need to do is ask for the link, a few days before the single meeting, at museo.comunicazioni@mise.gov.it. Subsequently, the recordings will be posted on the Youtube page of the cultural hub headed by Mimit.

Here is the programme of the first five Zoom sessions: <https://www.feapanews.com/wp-content/uploads/2023/01/La-posta-mai-immaginata.pdf>
